BEST PRACTICE 1: STUDENT WELFARE SCHEMES

The students are crucial and important part of the institutional activities. Any activity organized by the institution is done keeping in mind its benefit and utility to the students. Students come from different backgrounds and have different needs and aspirations. The institution assists them in achieving their goals by trying to provide them with the type of support needed by them, be it financial, academic, moral or emotional. The college has large number of students coming from socio economically weaker section who are mostly first-generation learners. Nearly 70% of student's strength is female. Many students are unable to continue higher studies due to financial constraints. They require financial and moral support to pursue higher education.

➤ A. BOOK BANK FACILITY

Goals:

- To provide subject textbooks for financially backward students.
- To provide helping hands for the needy students trying to achieve higher education.

Context:

Book Bank facility is available in our college since inception of the college. Book Bank facility is provided to Economically Backward Class and deserving students on receipt of their requisite forms. Due notice of book bank is published on all the notice boards at the time of admissions. Study materials (syllabus) are issued semester wise to students for the whole year and taken back after final examination is over.

Practices including in the scheme are as follows:

- Notices are put up in the library and circulated in the classrooms at the beginning of the academic year.
- Book bank forms are issued from the library to the students along with instructions.
- Scrutiny of forms is done by the librarian & recommendation list is prepared.
- After approval by the sanctioning authority, Librarian does processing & places orders for required books.
- Notices are circulated in classes for issuing of books under the scheme.

Context:

Most of the students are local residents and are aware of the problems in the society. Many people living in the adjoining area belongs to low-income group with poor literacy rate and is unaware about many health and environmental issues. Our students fill in the gap by reaching out to them through various societal oriented activities taken up by the extension units of the institution. The students get exposure to the practical work experience and make positive contribution to the society. In this process good institution-community network is established which benefits the society by improving quality of life and creating responsible citizenship.

Practice:

➤ Drives, Relief Camps and community survey:

- Blood Donation and Thalassemia Detection Camp was setup in the institution to identify individuals with thalassemia, a genetic blood disorder, early on to provide appropriate medical care and counseling.
- Voter Registration Drive was carried out to encourage eligible individuals to register to vote, thereby promoting civic engagement. The drive help expand the electorate and strengthen democracy by increasing the turnout and representation.
- Two Wheeler Safe Riding Training Session was organized by the Institution to educate the riders about safe riding practices, traffic rules, and defensive driving techniques to reduce the risk of accidents and injuries.
- Covid-19 Vaccination camp was set up in the institution for local community in both terms for first and second dose for making it convenient for local residence nearby the college.
- Students are motivated and encouraged to participate in community survey related to women and health issues thus contributing to social situatedness need analysis.
- AIDS Awareness Rally was organized in the institution to raise public awareness about HIV/AIDS, its prevention, transmission and treatment. It contributes to global efforts to end the AIDS epidemic.
